

Breaking into your destiny

Main Scripture Genesis 12:1-3 NIV

The LORD had said to Abram, "Go from your country, your people and your father's household to the land I will show you. 'I will make you into a great nation, and I will bless you; I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse; and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you.'"

Events before the call of Abram:

After the floods Noah had three sons (Japheth, Ham and Shem). Shem (son of interest) had five sons (Alam, Asshur, Arphaxed, Lud and Aram)

Now Arphaxad begot among other Sons, Salah. And the lineage flow as follows:

SHEM – ARPHAXAD – Salah – ebar – peleg – reu – serag – Nahori – Terah – (Nahori, Haran and Abram)

Now Abram (Abraham) begot Isaac and Ishmael. Haran begot Lot and the Bible, from this chapter doesn't say who the Sons of Nahori were

Haran died before his father leaving behind Lot (Genesis 11:28). Abram and Nahori married Sarai and Milka respectively (Genesis 11:29)

Now Abram was highly loved by his father but unfortunately both him and Sarai his wife got no Son for many years (Genesis 11:30)

The two events (early death of Haran and bareness of Abram) disturbed Terah very much. He believed that the gods of his fathers were behind the unfortunate events and decided to take them away out of the sight of the gods. (God spoke to Joshua – Joshua 24:2-3 about the idolatry environment he brought Abraham from)

He took Abram and Sarai and Lot and left Ur and went with them eastwards towards Canaan where he dwelled in Haran (Genesis 11:31)

Now Terah died in Haran when he was 105 years and Abram was 75 years. Later in the same year (when Terah died), God took over the full charge to land Abram to his destiny. This may mean two things:

1. That Terah was not the right man to hold on the hand of his son to his destiny but still God used him to start off the journey
2. Terah being a believer and worshiper of other gods had to be left behind as God moved in the final step to fulfil Abram's destiny (see also when Jesus moved to the house of Jairus to awaken his dead daughter Mark 5:37-38, when Peter went on to the upper chamber where the body of Tabitha – Dorcas was laid to resurrect her Acts 9:39-41 and in Matthew 17:1-7 Jesus transfiguration)

Now God appeared in a dream to Abram Genesis 12:1-3 showed him the picture of his destiny and promised to fulfil it. In 12:4-7 Abram obeyed God and in faith he moved on a journey from Haran to the land which God would show him.

He walked for many days and nothing else carried him except faith in the promise of God. He was not having dreams or visions every night. The spirit of God went before him. When he stepped in the land of Canaan, now God re-appeared in a dream and re-emphasized His commitment

Abraham learned that Canaan was the land God promised him in the first dream and when he woke up in the morning he built God an altar at Bethel Gen 12:8. From this moment on, Abram changed his life and became a prayer slave

Sometimes as he dwelled in Bethel of Canaan there was famine in the land and he left eastwards to Egypt where Pharaoh took Sarai and slept with. God was unhappy and punished the land of Egypt in fulfilment of the promise he made to Abram when he called him in Genesis 12:3 and 15:1). He was unceremoniously driven out of Egypt under orders of the King.

Genesis 13:3-4 He went back to Bethel where his first altar stood and there he prayed God many days. Genesis 13:14 we see Abram also being separated from Lot by the hand of God and soon after God appeared again to Abram and re-emphasized His commitment in making him that which he promised Genesis 13:17)

Then he built the second altar in the plains of Mamre and continued his prayerful life there for several years according to Genesis 13:18

He demonstrated his addiction to prayer and offering to God when he built his third altar at the mountain of God as he got ready to offer his only son (Isaac) for a burnt sacrifice Gen 22:9

And prayer and worship became the propeller for Abram to his divine destiny. Board this vehicle and pray relentlessly. Become a slave of prayer and worship as the only key to open closed doors to your destiny

Even when you are asleep, your spirit should engage with God in thanks giving, repentance, and request and so on like it was with Abraham. See Genesis 15:1-6. The spirit of God visited Abraham as he slept and Abraham made a request which God answered straight away in the realm of spirit
